

Please be aware of the concerns and interests of average citizens when creating rules of media ownership. It is critical that the trend towards control of the media by very few corporations be reversed. The public needs diversity of ownership to get diversity and accuracy of information.